Location

The 2020 National 4-H Shooting Sports Workshop will be held in Virginia at Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center located in central Virginia just 12 miles from Appomattox Courthouse Historical Park.

Schedule

The workshop will begin on Sunday, May 10th with check-in for participants late Sunday afternoon. The workshop will end with graduation on Wednesday night. Wednesday night lodging and Thursday breakfast are included for participants who wish to spend the night and travel home on Thursday.

Disciplines

Level II certification will be offered in all disciplines except Western Heritage. All Level II instructor-candidates must be approved by their State 4-H Shooting Sports Coordinator.—Also please note that states have been sending far too many folks who have little or no training or experience. Applicants will be scrutinized more in the future. Must have been an active Level 1 certified instructor for minimum of 2 years.

Travel

The closest major airport is Richmond International (~ 2 hours). The closest regional airports are Lynchburg (~ 45 min) and Roanoke (~1½ hours).

Registration Fee

The fee for on-time registration will be $360. Registration details and documents will be announced soon.

Lodging and Meals

Rustic bunk-style accommodations include 15 historic cabins, 2 bunkhouses and 1 lodge. Newly built/renovated bathhouses. Participants need to bring their own bedding, towels and toiletries. Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be served in the Rachel F. Lawson Family Dining Center. For those that prefer hotels, special rates are available at the Appomattox Inn & Suites in Appomattox which is 20 minutes from the 4-H Center. A special rate is available if reserved by April 27. Call (434) 664-2018 and ask for the 4-H Nat'l Instructor Training discount. There are also six hotels in Farmville which is 30 minutes away. Holliday Lake State Park offers camping with RV hook-ups but no cabin-style lodging.

Additional Information

Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center is located on a 219-acre lake in the middle of a 20,000-acre state forest. Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 2011 and is known for its shooting ranges/facilities.
